

We want to make sure the students have the best experience possible with teachers who are best equipped to facilitate that, and are focused in providing support and professional development.

– NANCY CARUSO, ASST. HEAD OF SCHOOL

A SAMPLE OF FACULTY/STAFF LED STUDENT GROUPS

- Boys of Color
- Girls of Color
- Latino Student Group
- Asian American Student Group
- Gay Straight Alliance

CURRICULUM CONNECTIONS

Our classes are based on an approach that focuses on politics, culture, and ideas, to foster discussions and research about topics such as race and equity.

– KADER ADJOUT, HISTORY DEPARTMENT HEAD

A SAMPLE OF DIVERSITY WORK IN THE CLASSROOM

Students can take classes such as:

- Race, Class, and Identity
- Voices of Dissent: Civil Rights, Women's Rights, and Other Social Movements
- Ideologies

Students engage in collaborative projects such as “Power as a Force”, which involves English, Physics, and History classes exploring power through different lenses.

This is just some of the work we are doing to ensure that all members of the Beaver community have access to a supportive and engaging environment. It is all of our responsibility.

As a potential member of the Beaver community, you will have the same responsibility.

Beaver