Met Gala 2021 by Brittany Franklin

The Met Gala is a place where famous celebrities are invited to come and dress in crazy looks and have lots of fun with their outfits. Today I am going to be rating some of the celebrities' outfits and telling you my opinion on them. (this is just my opinion)

First off starting strong, Billie Eilish. Billie wore the most beautiful dress ever. She said in an interview she was going for a more princess look with a long back. Overall I thought it was an amazing dress. 10/10.

Moving on we have Miss Dixie

D'Amelio. Dixie's dress was honestly not my favorite. It was very boxy and just a bit odd. I liked the white gloves though, but the thing on her head was just not my favorite. 5/10 for me.

Next up Emma Chamberlain, Emma wore the prettiest dress ever. It was gold with gems in it, and it had a small little train on the side and I just think it's so beautiful. I rate it a 9/10.

Kendall Jenner's dress was very pretty, it was a little see-through but it was covered with a bunch of pretty gems and the bottom part where it went out was pretty. I rate it a 9.5/10.

Ok and last but not least Kim Kardashian.

Ummm I'm not really sure what to say about this one. All black and you can't see her face. 3/10

[Editor's Note: The Met Gala is a yearly fundraising event at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City that benefits the museum's Costume Institute.]

Day in the Life of a Beaver Student

by Natalie Lippman & Katie Born

I, Katie, usually start my day by driving to school kinda late but that's okay I get to school like 10-ish minutes before class starts and I head to the library to hang out with my friends so I don't chat with them during class. I am going to do my day routine from a Thursday point of view. So my first class is Humanities which is one of my favorite classes. Humanities is from 8:00am-9:45am. Then it's snack which well ya know its snack im pretty happy. Then I have theater arts from 10:05am-10:50am. I love theater arts so it's a good time.

Then next it's chorus from 10:55am-11:40am which is great because chorus is also one of my favorite classes and I enjoy it very much. Then at 11:40am-12:30pm lunch and recess which is very fun. It's a great break to fuel up and have some fun. Then after lunch and recess I have science from 12:35pm-1:35pm and I like science when we do hands-on things the most. After that we have R-time from 1:40pm-2:25pm. R-time is where we either read, work on projects, or do homework. After R-time we have a later school snack which is the same as the morning snack. And finally my favorite time of day is The Fall Play. This year it's "Failure a Love Story". It's so much fun. I think I have a good amount of lines and stage time. And that goes from 2:30pm-3:45pm. And that is my Thursday thank you and have a nice day.

This is a day in the life of me, Natalie! I normally start my day at 6:15 and I'm usually very tired. I eat breakfast first and then get dressed and ready for the day. I normally get there around 7:30 because my dad works at beaver, I normally go to the R+D till 7:58, then I go to class. I normally have humanities, math, then snack, or MS moment, or MS meeting, or advisory. Then after that we have french and then violin and then lunch at 11:40. We have recess at 12:05 till 12:35. After that we have theatre arts and science or R-time. And then an afternoon snack which is in the front circle. After that I have volleyball practice. At practice I normally work on bumps, and sets and then we normally scrimmage which is like a mini game. Me and my friend Tylee normally go to my dad's classroom and work on homework and eat a snack. Then me and my dad go home!!

Game by Lawrence Rosebert

Teleport: transport or be transported across space and distance instantly.

Chapter 2 Transported

My hand got sucked inside to the TV. Everything went black.

This must be a dream, right?
I pinch myself, but nothing happens. I spiral down.

Then I see a speck of... Ground? I'M HEADED STRAIGHT FOR IT!
The island gets bigger and bigger as time passes.

I try to brace for impact, but I keep spiraling. I can't balance. It's surely the end...

Wooooosh-- BOOM

Right?

I open my eyes in shock. I brush dirt off of my clothes. It's the same island in the picture? Did I get transported here from the TV?

I look around.

Trees, sand and... A ROBOTIC SNAKE???

I slowly inch backwards, but the snake continues to charge me.

I try to dodge it, but I end up tripping.

It bites.

I spring up in the air in pain, and fall on the snake.

It's just... Disappeared? Wait... Isn't that how "video games" work with "enemies?"

I couldn't believe it.
I GOT TRANSPORTED INTO A GAME!!!

Stay tuned for chapter 3!

Caves, Part 2 by Jaz Winston

Annie and Jaz's lives were about to change forever. The 2 friends went out for a picnic and went exploring. They found a glowing cave. [If you haven't read part 1 then go read that before you continue. :)]

Annie had finally agreed to go in.

They went in to see hundreds of glowing crystals. "Wow, it's so beautiful" jaz said

The crystals twinkle in the light like stars in the night sky.

They travel deeper into the cave, the crystals shaking as they walk by. Then they hear a loud 'BANG': the cave has enclosed in, stopping right where the 2 girls stood.

They were trapped in

"What do we do Annie!?! "

"I don't know Jaz, maybe we can explore deeper into the cave, maybe there's a way out."

"That's a good idea."

They both start walking deeper into the cave, deeper into the darkness.

Jaz couldn't stop wondering why she had felt a connection to this place. Was she meant to be here or was it just her stomach growling in hunger.

Crystals & Where They Came From by Addie Marsh

There is so much to know about crystals, so I am here to tell you about them. Last week we talked about

The Cheesecake Times

Citrine and its properties. This week we are going to talk about Fuchsite!

Fuchsite is a green crystal that can also be known as Chrome Mica. People say it helps get the weight off your shoulders. That it helps you relax. People like to take tests while they have Fuchsite with them when they take tests. Fuchsite can also help with mental clarity. It helps you connect with yourself. Fuchsite motivates you, if you can, you should bring Fuchsite around with you.

Thank you for reading this week's Crystals and Where They Come From. If you enjoyed it and want more, come back next week for your next crystal. You can also read my two other articles in previous newsletters. See you next week!

Skiing vs. Beaches Joza Wang & William Mortimer

Welcome back to another week of VS! This week's VS is Skiing Vs Beaches, Which is the better vacation! You decide!

WILLIAM'S ARGUMENT

HELLO Ski fans! It's not the season so let's try and WIN THIS!! First off Skiing is much better than the beach because no one wants sand stuck in your feet all day! It's MUCH more fun to go whizzing down a mountain at 64 miles per hour! It's also fun to go through wooded areas and go down racing courses and try to beat the clock! Think about this, can you do any of that at the beach? Answer NO. All you can do is walk along the beach! Some people say "IT'S TOO COLD I'LL GET FROSTBITE! PLUS I DON'T EVEN KNOW HOW TO SKI!" True, those are matters to address but they are very easy to fix, first off the chance of frostbite with proper ski gear 1 in 100. And the second thing is that Skiing is a very easy thing to learn. Once you know the basics it's really easy to do everything else! So yeah go skiing not the beach it's just how it works! So go do some skiing!

JOZA'S ARGUMENT

Let's get straight to the point, beaches are just better than going skiing on a mountain. Beaches are warm from the sun, and cool in the water, while skiing in the mountains is just cold and colder! Another reason beaches are better is that YOU DON'T HAVE TO WEAR 20 POUNDS OF CLOTHES. Also, skiing is more expensive than the beach

First of all, going to the beach is better than going skiing, because the beach isn't just cold like going skiing is. On the beach you can go in the cool ocean waves or stay on the warm sand, while when you go skiing, you have to be cold and colder and even colder! That is why I firmly believe that going to the beach is better than going skiing

Secondly, going to the beach is way less expensive than going skiing. When you go to the beach you only need a swimming suit, towel and blanket, while if you go skiing, you need skis, ski poles, a helmet, a jacket, snow pants, and you need to rent a house and to get tickets for the ski lift! Clearly, going to the beach is better than going skiing.

I think I won this week's debate. I will see you all on next week's VS!

WOW! What a great debate! And this week's winner is beaches by a score of 16-7! Congratulations to the winner! We will see you next time on VS! (Vote score skiing 5-3 beaches other than class)

Lone Wolf by Quinn Burke

The fire was coming.

He could smell it on the wind. The smoke rose in the distance. The air crackled with heat and desiccation.

Even this part of the forest, virtually untouched by the fire until now, was starting to wither.

Thunder knew he needed to move. There was a part of Thunder though, that felt responsible for helping Mist and Moon, the healers that had nursed him back to health. He didn't want to leave them here, even though Moon's witty retorts could get on his nerves.

He was a lone wolf though, he had never traveled with other wolves before, well, that is except for...

Well, he would figure it out. He started to lope back toward their den, thankful that his shoulder no longer sent tendrils of pain through his body when he moved.

He slowed to a halt as he reached the den, sending up a small cloud of dirt. "Mist?" He called into the den. There were soft beams of sunlight slipping into the den. The smell of leaves and flowers wafted from it. Mist was nowhere to be found.

"Thunder!" Exclaimed a voice from behind him. He leaped around unnerved by the urgent tone of her voice. Moon skidded to a halt. Her cobalt eyes wide with fear and shock. Her pearl-white fur was matted by burrs and twigs as if she had sprinted all the way back, not even bothering to steer clear of bushes and low branches. "It's Mist! She's fallen in the river!"

Thunder bounded forward but Moon streaked past him, fear for her trainer's life lending strength to her legs. Moon and Thunder burst through the undergrowth onto the shore of the river. He immediately spotted Mist, clinging to a log wedged in a rock, her paws working furiously against the current. Thunder was surprised at the elderly wolf's strength.

Suddenly though, he no longer saw Mist, he saw Raven, her small, thin body flailing in the water. He had stood there helplessly, knowing he could do nothing for his sister. He had run alongside the water, calling to her, calling until she flailed no longer, calling until he knew she was gone.

Day in The Life of NOVA

by Reid Bugbee (because I can't type)

Hi, I'm NOVA and if you didn't know already I'm a famous: Model, Actress, Singer, Rapper, Scubadiver, Napper, Biter, Bodyguard, MommyLover, and EVERYTHING else.

My day starts with howling at the top of my lungs at 2 am until mommy comes down to play except, she doesn't want to play so I head upstairs to my Queen sized Bed where Reid is watching out for the scary monsters that i'm totally not scared of whaaat. Anyway I woke up at 6 and jumped on my bed until Reid woke up. She started to yell at me but I don't know why! 30 minutes later I went downstairs to my very own personal dropper and today's special food was Lucky Charms and lots of milk because one of my servants spilled it.

After that I took a bath, I can't spend my day covered in milk. So I fill my bath with warm water, rose petals, and bubbles. I have my droppers drop me into the bath and I get a full soapy massage. After my bath I shake it off and go to roll in the mud to get a mud bath for my commercial that's in 1 hour. At the commercial I model Chewy Vuitton's Brand new fall collection go buy it, it's amazing.

Now the time is already 7 pm and we are eating dinner which is steak and when nobodys looking I jump up and drag the plate down with me eating all the steak. Mommy comes in and yells at me. But I don't know why after all it was for me! So i'm put in my crate for the rest of the night. Bye!

Jeff Fan Page 02 by JeffLover444

this article may contain spoilers

We are back with some more Jeff fun facts! Let's start right away!

The new survivor season is out! And Jeff has a phrase he always uses "Come on in guys!" and he just asked everyone "Is it ok if I use guys?" YES JEFF! YES!

Survivor Update: Spoiler Alert Sadly, I've been extremely busy and do not have the update for the new season! But I can tell you, this first episode had 2 eliminations!

A note to Spencer: Spencer is an amazing survivor player. I love him (My mom and younger sister don't though.) he has been on survivor twice, and has got 4th and 3rd place. If you didn't know, you have to get accepted to compete in survivor. When Spencer got accepted, Jeff had some doubts. He wrote Spencer a note basically saying "You won't win." At the final tribal, which is when they announce the winner of Survivor and 1 million dollars, Jeff apologized to Spencer. Even though Spencer did not win, he got 4th place that season, he didn't lose, did very well in Survivor, and was a fan favorite. Seeing Jeff Probst Apologize to someone on live tv was just amazing.

Favorites: Jeff has favorites? Yup. Jeff favorite all time winner is Paravati Shallow Quitters: No one likes quitters, but Jeff really doesn't! A few people have quit survivor, and Jeff lets them know how he feels. In Blood vs Water, Colton quit Survivor. For the second time. Jeff was angry. He said "We brought a quitter back, and we have a quitter again." And some other not so great things. 3 times, people quit during tribal council, jeff.

YASS QUEEN, IT'S FASHION!! by That Gurl Lay Lay! & Young Queen Bee!

Yall we're back whether you like it or not! (SO LIKE IT!!!) And today we are talking about makeup, hairstyles, and fashion!!

MAKEUP!!!!

You guys! Today is a big day like everyday!!! You put on da makeup gurl (or boy)! Okay for makeup we need gold eyeshadow with small eyeliner wings (for colors black dark red to get the Halloween vibe) and maybe a bit of high glitter to look shiny (if you want). And a cute look is the Bella Poarch blush to go with light eyeshadow. Some other cute colors are light pink and light yellow because we are at the beginning of the fall we should start with lighter colors! Also wearing white clothing is out of style after Memorial Day SO DON'T DO THAT. And you can forget the concealer that keeps you looking crisp and clean and awake in the mornings. If I'm being honest, concealer for me is one of the greatest gifts. And if your parents don't let you wear makeup then I'm sorry :(

Shoes! Again.

Ok for shoes we talked a lot about boots. Now let's talk about UGGs. They are so comfortable and stylish! You can get fuzzy slippers to big cozy boots! And they come in so many styles.

Trendy shoes!!!! YASSS get ready. The scents are pumpkin spice, candy apple, cinnamon, vanilla, and maple leaves. So get it now!! A personal fav is lavender :)

Pants!!!

We all need pants for this season! And we're talking about Jeans! There are Jeggings dark tight jeans light tight jeans and dark baggy jeans and light baggy jeans SO MANY DIFFERENT STYLE JEANS! The tight fit look is so cute and feminine. Personally a fav. But the big baggy look is trendy too. Ripped jeans are going out of style now that it's getting colder but regular jeans are so totally in! One of the best brands is ASOS! They have so many styles that frame your body perfectly!!! They have so many styles for so many different bodies! And if you want to go fancy you could get yourself Forever 21!!! And SHEIN!!! So good! We have to say shopping at Forever 21 is a fav! Also FRAME is a good brand too!! And then the regular leggings. A cool style would be black leather but fake leather PLS. And then just black leggings are cool with a flannel shirt. And skirts are still in season until it gets Cold. SO GO GET SOME STUFF :b

Sweaters!

It is getting chilly and we need to be comfy, cozy and cute. So we are thinking a cute yarn fleece or a North Face light jacket. You can also do sweat shirts and a big one with leggings to be cozy yet cute. Or a zip up sweater to be warm. There are so many choices, just don't put on anything heavy so you don't sweat.

Heads up it's soon going to be Libra and Scorpio season. We will talk more next time! Bye THX for reading :) PEACE!!!!

The Witch Boy: Review by Quinn Burke

Living up to expectations or letting your own magic show? This book is a story about finding your place and struggling under your family's expectations. The main character, a young boy named Aster, has grown up in a magic family where the boys always become shapeshifters and the girls always become witches. The problem is he doesn't want to become a shapeshifter and he's having trouble learning to shift. He wants to be a witch. As he tries to figure out his place, other boys who haven't learned to shift yet start going missing and he needs to follow his heart and his head if he wants to save them.

This book is a brilliant story with beautiful art that can inspire the reader, even though the circumstances are fantasy. It teaches about following your heart, letting others choose what they want to be and being yourself. I would recommend this to anyone who loves fantasy, graphic novels and wonderfully written storylines.
