Crystals by Addie Marsh & Brittany Franklin

Hi fellow humans. I'm not sure if you can see but we have another friend here to talk about crystals, the one, the only, BRITTANY FRANKLIN!!! WOOOOO!!! I just wanted to introduce our new author and tell you to keep reading!

Addie here! This week I'm going to talk about Lapis Lazuli (Lapis for short). Lapis is a royal blue color, but sometimes has golden streaks. Lapis was crushed and turned into ultramarine in Europe during the Middle Ages. It was a very expensive pigment, and it was used by many famous artists. A very common place to find Lapis is in the mines of northeast Afghanistan. Lapis is also known for helping you with your health and physical abilities. It is one of the oldest stones talked about by healers in stories. That is all for my crystal this week, but I will make sure to see you for next week!

Hi! It's Brittany and the crystal I'm choosing today is pink Kunzite. The pink Kunzite is supposed to help you with healing and bring joy to you. It activates the heart chakra. Heart chakra is supposed to bring out compassion, empathy, love, and forgiveness. It brings healing and helps you with stress. Pink Kunzite is obviously pink, It is a light clear pink color and it is so pretty!

Hi! It's me Addie again! I realized that I haven't talked about why I like crystals. Well first of all they are super cool. They have all kinds of properties and facts that we can learn about. I also have some at home, I collect things. I have many things that I collect, but I also have crystals. My last reason is because of my friends. Me and my friends all love crystals and talk about them a lot. I just thought you'd like to know about why I talk about crystals!

No! No Music! No Music Ever Again!

Failure, A Love Story

by Katie Born & Natalie Lippman

Katie, Jaz, and Reid were the 3 main narrators in Failure, A Love Story. They introduced the show by talking about the beginning of the story.

Cassie played Gerty Fail. Something you need to know about Gerty Fail is that she is the oldest of the Fail girls and she is the last of the Fail girls to die. Gerty is a strong woman who keeps her own opinion and is great at being a strong woman Leili was Nelly, a very important character. Nelly is the first of the Fail girls to die. Nelly is very sweet, probably the nicest of the fail sisters.

Theo is John. N Fail. John. N cares about his birds (December and Mae) more than his own sisters. He also is respectful of Mortimer Mortimer marrying Nelly (or not...)

Aubrey is Mortimer Mortimer, a sweet caring man. He adds a funny accent to the show. Mortimer is the man who falls in love with every fail sister but marries none.

Katie's interview

Katie: I am 1 of the 3 main narrators. Before the show: I am feeling excited and nervous. I'm very happy that we finally got to finally perform. After the show: I feel happy that it happened but sad it's over but very excited for the musical.

Charlie's interview

Charlie plays the dog: How do you feel before the show? I feel like I am confident about my lines and I am excited to die! How do you feel after the show? I feel really good and happy and I thought I did a good job and I was proud of myself that I could perform in front of a lot of people.

Jaz's interview

Jaz plays 1 of the 3 main narrators. How are you feeling about the play before the show: I am very excited for the play but I am also worried that I will forget my lines. Explain your character in 3 words: important,

The Cheesecake Times

November 5, 2021 Beaver Country Day School Grade 6 Volume 1, Issue 6

explaining, old. How do you feel about playing a narrator? I actually really enjoy it. I got a good amount of lines and it's fun to play. In a way I kind of hold the story together along with Katie and Reid. But I do wish there was more of an acting element. What are you most excited about? The experience and being able to perform in front of all my friends and family. Now that the play is over how was it? It was very fun to make and to work together with all these amazing people. What are your reflections on the play? I think it was great and if you did not come then i'm sorry but you MISSED OUTTTT.

Reid's Interview

Reid is one of the three main narrators: How do you feel before the show? I feel not that nervous, I was more excited. I have been acting for a long time so I don't get nervous anymore. I also had a concussion so I was nervous I would feel bad. How do you feel now that the show is over? I feel a little sad but I'm really happy I got to have that experience and I'm really excited for the musical. Did you make any mistakes during the show? I did not on night one and I did not on night two also because I practiced a lot. How do you feel about striking the set? I feel happy and a little sad because it just reminds me of all the good times we have had. Anything you would like to say to future actors? Practice a lot! And you're only nervous because you're excited.

Cassie's interview

Cassie plays Gerty in the play: How do you feel before the show? I feel slightly nervous but mostly excited. How do you feel after the show? I feel really sad honestly. I am so excited for the winter musical and it was really great and people were so nice to me :).

William's interview

William's interview in tech: Now that play is over how was it? It definitely feels good to have the play behind me but exactly should have been disappointing because it was really fun to like you know I do all the set stuff and to like build everything I enjoyed. I mean I definitely enjoyed it and it was definitely also like a really good afternoon activity to start off with. I really want to do it again and really fun to experience all that like something you might not be able to do at other schools so it's definitely something you should look into. What was your favorite part? My favorite part was actually probably building everything because it's fun to see how everything fits together without actually doing the show so building the sets gives you an understanding of the whole show. I mean like the show itself is really fun but I just think the building process and setting it up on the stage and seeing it all come together is probably the best part.

We hope you made it to the Fall play. It was a great play. There were some mistakes but it was still fun.

Halloween Fashion

by Witch BB & Vampy!!!!

HEY GUYS! Lay Lay and Bee are not here today, they are so boring. Am I right? So we are taking over for them!! I am VAMPY and with me is WITCH BB!! We are awesome. We know everything about Halloween.

First of all, if you want to get good candy... you have to say that YOU PUT TOGETHER THE OUTFIT, and be creative! That's how it works. When I bought a witch costume on Amazon years ago and went trick or treating with my friends they put together their outfits but I didn't and they got more candy from people and I got less. And you will never be too old for Halloween because you get free candy and get scary people and not get in so much trouble. And if you say that you're TOO OLD FOR HALLOWEEN, THAT'S NOT TRUE.

Halloween Makeup!!!

If you want to be creative, then makeup is one of the best ways to go! Because you can go all out, but nothing too scary, this is school, but still be creative. Pro Tip: put setting spray on so the makeup does not smudge. You can use fake blood, contacts, and latex on your face would look so cool too!! And since we have masks we should make our eyes pop with killer and bright eyeliner, eyeshadow and mascara and thick eyeliner! You can do anything with eyeliner! You can draw things on your face and so much more! Also face paint will look great once you have a creepy and cool idea!

Halloween Hairstyles!!!!

There is nothing much we can say here but hair pieces, wigs, and hair dye spray from Party City because they are fun. You can have a cute braided hairstyle with a cute colored hair clip on to look like a fairy or anything. Also you can have hats and headbands too. For hats you can be a witch and have a cute decoration on it to look like a wise old witch. The headband that you can be a devil or an angel. You can also have a hairstyle from your fav movie, tv show, and book!

Paranorma!!!!

Ok so if you are having a sleepover for Halloween something fun to do while you stay up with your friends is some ghost chants!!! One is "oogie woogie don't say boo oogie woogie i see you!" you have to look in the mirror right at your face in the complete dark! It works better at night. One thing to keep in mind... you need to BELIEVE!! You can also do Bloody Mary!! You need to be in the bathroom with a dimly lit candle with the lights off. You need to chant Bloody Mary 13 times!

Bye guys Thank you for reading and we wish a Happy Halloween!!!!!!

Also if anyone is interested... SATURDAY WAS MY B-DAY!! It was awesome! So yeh! THX SO MUCH FOR READING I HOPE UR HALLOWEEN WAS AMAZING I WILL SEE U NEXT WEEK YALL BYEEEE THX! AND MAKE SURE ON HALLOWEEN NIGHT U TRY THOSE CREPPY GHOST CHANTS! I WILL!! THX BYE!!!!!!

BOOK NAME REVEAL:

Thunder Escaping - Three Healers

by Quinn Burke

"You are angering the Earth Spirits! Stop this now," hissed Mist as a broad-shouldered wolf landed on Thunder's back. The pack surrounded them, snarling, teeth bared. "They want us all to escape the valley!"

"Yeah, and if you and the fire spirits are such good buddies then why can't they stop it?" Moon narrowed her eyes, her tail swishing in irritation.

"Because they can't, you bird-brained pup," Falcon, the male alpha, snapped back. "Even they can't stop the fire snake!"

"What's that?" Thunder said, his curiosity overriding his anger.

"A creature," began Jet with a burning intensity, only equal to the fire itself, "With eyes burning as bright as the most brilliant sun, wings, large as the sky itself, fangs as sharp as a jagged rock, and breath like the burning inferno within. Not even all the spirits in the world could stop it, it will devour the valley and any wolves to stupid to flee"

All the wolves were silent, there was even a whimper or two. "Then why must you stop us?" Mist asked, her voice surprisingly steady.

"Because our healer can only speak to the Fire Spirits," explained Jet "You can speak to the Earth spirits and you're trainee can speak to the Water Spirits, we think those might be useful, so we will be your escorts out of the valley, we-"

"What about Thunder?" interrupted Moon, gesturing with her tail.

"He can come if he must," replied Jet. She must know that they might not cooperate if they hurt me, so they must tolerate me, no matter how much they hate it, thought Thunder, feeling kind of smug about it. "Now, if we're done with the chit-chat may we go now?"

"Of course your high alphaness, did we upset you with all our disrespectful 'chit-chat'?" gasped Moon in mock respect with an exaggerated dip of her head, this earned her a snarl from Falcon.

"By all means, hold us captive and use our powers for your own greedy plans, you should just hope the Spirits don't send their wrath upon you," Mist whispered to Jet, "It would mean the death of us all."

Jeff Probst Fan Page 4 by JeffLover444

Hey Jeff fans! Welcome back to another article, this one is going to be short, because as I was writing my laptop died and nothing saved. Yeah there was a little bit of screaming. Let's start!

Season 41 update: I will be stopping this part, because I got a little bit of backlash over spoiling!

Season ideas: Ok, so I was in the shower this morning (tmi sorry) and I had an idea about the Survivor season, so I made a list!

1. Worst First, people who went out first
2. Game changers vs game breakers

Game by Lawrence Rosebert

HP: Hitpoints or Health Points is the amount of health one has and denotes the amount of damage that can be max taken by the player.

Chapter 5 HP

My legs felt weird. Like if you were able to jump out of quicksand with one jump.

I went "higher" than usual. I couldn't really tell because my eyes watered, screaming for my life.

"AHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!" I screamed.

I landed. Did I make it?

I opened my eyes.

"I... I made it!!" I exclaimed.

"Yes!" Sam said. "It worked better than expected!"

"Better than expected?" I said, confused. "You mean like, it could have gone wrong..?"

"Ummmm...." Sam whispered. "yea."

"WHAT DID YOU JUST SAY!"

I yelled. "I COULD HAVE DIED!"

I continued.

"Yeah," he said. "But you didn't! That's good." he said calmly.

I was about to yell again, but he was right. We did it. Maybe this journey might not be so bad.

The hospital stood before me. STILL pretty convenient, kid you not. I realized that my leg is still swollen. I didn't even notice it during the jumps. Did I just not feel the pain?

Anyways, me and my brother trek inside. Well, just me, because I'm the only one in the game.

The hallways are empty. Hospital beds and monitors all over the floor. There's even grass and moss on the walls. Everythings a mess.

Is this hospital abandoned? I couldn't see it well from afar, but now that I look at it, it kind of looks like a..

No, couldn't be. My brother goes quiet. He seems invested in what is going to happen next. Like a movie.

On the left, near the entrance, I saw a fire axe behind some broken glass.

"You should take that," my brother said. "For protection. Any platformer has its enemies."

I took the red axe, being careful not to puncture my hand on the broken glass.

I started to move down the dark hallway. Less and less lights flickered as I moved further.

Then, I saw a daunting green glow glistening in the distance.

I trekked.

The Cheesecake Times

November 5, 2021 Beaver Country Day School Grade 6 Volume 1, Issue 6

As I got closer, I heard this smooth humming sound, like meditators would do.

Hummmmmm....

Hummmmmm....

I hesitated. What was I getting into? I firmly grasp my red axe, ready for an attack.

Then there it was.

A... A... medkit???

It was floating and twirling in one spot.

I went to go pick it up, but it instantly disappeared when it touched my hands. I felt this energy surge go through my body. It was exhilarating!

“You just healed up,” my brother said.

“W-what?” I responded.

I check my leg.

“It's not swelling anymore!” I cheered.

But it wasn't over. I heard this low growl. Once again, I got the axe ready.

“Be careful,” my brother said.

“I'll try,” I said back.

I saw its shadow. It kind of looked like a person, just a little slumped.

And slow too.

“Show yourself!” I shouted.

And sure enough, it came into vision.

It was a..

“Zombie!” We both shouted.

Stay tuned for the next chapter!

World Conflict

by William Mortimer & Joza Wang

England Vs Switzerland

Welcome to World conflict where you watch your favorite countries battle it out in a debate about which place is better to live in! This week's battle will be interesting!

England (Joza)

Okay, England is a better country to live in because of three reasons. First, England is one of the richest countries in the world making it easier to live in.
Secondly, England is an island country with a strong navy and air force meaning that is very unlikely to get invaded and destroyed. Finally, England is a democracy and allows for you to have a lot of freedom to do whatever you want.

First of all, England is one of the richest countries in the world and its Gdp per capita (Gdp per capita is the average amount a household earns per year) is $41,100 which is 26th in the world making England one of the richest countries in the world meaning higher pay and a better chance to have a good life.
My second reason why England is a better place to live in is that it is an island country with a good navy and air force meaning that in times of war your belongings are very unlikely to get destroyed. Compared to a landlocked country like Switzerland which can be invaded from anywhere, England is very safe. My final reason is that England is a democracy that allows you to do what you want and gives you lots of freedom. England, unlike most other countries, lets you do whatever you want without

The Cheesecake Times

November 5, 2021 Beaver Country Day School Grade 6 Volume 1, Issue 6

the fear of going to jail and being killed. That is why I think England is the better country to live in.

Switzerland (William)

Hello everyone! Today is going to be a great day for Switzerland fans because Switzerland has been chosen for... -WORLD CONFLICT-

Anyway let's get started! First off Switzerland is a great country because there are lovely mountains right off your doorstep in some places! You can ski, snowboard, snow tube IN THE MIDDLE OF SUMMER! Can you do THAT in England? That's what I thought.

SWITZERLAND FACTS:

- Did you know that there are 7,000 lakes in Switzerland?
- Switzerland is such an animal loving country that a dog can go with you anywhere and there are laws that claim you must take care of them well. Ex getting them microchipped and proper exercise every day!
- Switzerland also has TONS of delicious gourmet chocolates like truffles and éclairs! You can also live in nice cities and suburban areas!
- Switzerland has wonderful blue lakes from all the glacier run-off so they are a perfect blue color!

So those are just a few reasons why you should visit Switzerland!

Thunder Escaping Chapter 7 - Speaking With Water by Quinn Burke

Thunder stalked through the sleeping wolves, searching for the shining white pelt of Moon. He spotted her, her glowing snow-colored fur rippled like the surface of a lake in the breeze.

He padded over, careful not to tread on any tails. He sat down beside her and prodded her with his paw.

She stretched her legs and rolled over to face him. "Thunder, what is it?" she yawned quietly.

The Cheesecake Times

November 5, 2021 Beaver Country Day School Grade 6 Volume 1, Issue 6

“Well, I wanted to ask you something,” Thunder began softly. Moon nodded. “Jet said you could speak with the water spirits, why didn’t they help us save Mist in the river?”

Moon looked away quickly but Thunder didn’t miss the extreme emotions that flooded them when he reminded her of that horrible day.

“Moon? Are you alright?”

“No! I’m not!” she snapped, turning to look at him, her large blue eyes still full of emotion “I was scared, I can’t do it! I thought I would just make it worse, I’m a coward alright?”

“You are not a coward,” Thunder said, putting his paw on hers. “You jumped right in to save her, I don’t care if you don’t have any powers at all, you are the bravest wolf I have ever met.”

Moon contemplated this for a second and gave her moonlight-dappled pelt a shake. “Will you help me practice?” Moon asked tentatively.

“What did I just say? You don’t need to be powerful,”

“I know, I know! Still, it might... come in handy,”

“Alright, let’s go,” Thunder sighed, getting to his paws. Moon got up after him and they walked to the river together. The river lapped softly at the banks, sparkling in the moonlight. It seemed to be full of stars.

As the water touched his paw he sprang back with a yelp.

Moon planted her paws and squeezed her eyes shut. The calm river’s surface began to ruffle. Moon started murmuring to herself. The slow-flowing stream started to swirl a bit.

Suddenly, without warning, the flow sped up rapidly, Thunder leapt backward as the river tossed up a salty spray. Salty!

“Moon! Salt! This leads to the ocean!” He exclaimed.

Moon’s eyes flew open. “Really?” She started bounding along the bank of the river. Thunder bounded after her. The river, which was flowing smoothly now, led to a dark cavern that led into the mountain side. “Wow!” the cave echoed her words.

“Do you know what this means?” Moon gasped. “This tunnel is a shortcut to the sea!”

Thunder was frozen, he had barely heard Moon’s words. The narrow tunnel leading deeper into the mountain side, the water that possibly hid a strong current under the gentle surface.

“Thunder?” Her words seemed distant.

“Thunder!”

“No, no, I can’t do that! I’m not going in there!” Thunder insisted.

“It might be the only way out if there’s a-”

“FIRE!”

Fashion!!! by Lay Lay and Bee!

HEY GUYS WERE BACK!!!! It’s ya girls Lay Lay and Bee those girls last time they were so annoying. How they could take our column, how rude, but we are back. And I would like to say that winter fashion is coming up soon!! And we are going to start talking about that because YASSS QUEEN U KNOW WE GET EXCITED ABT FASHION!!!!!!!!!!!!!! So let’s talk about jackets!!!

WOOHOO JACKETS YAY!

So jackets can be fashionable but you have to make it fashionable! With the right outfits and everything!! Like Canada Goose jackets can be fashionable. But you would have to get one with fur on the brim of the hood and it would be cropped too!

OBVIOUSLY NOT REAL FUR

THO GUYS!! And you can get fancy jackets too! It’s a good idea but don’t spend a lot of money on a jacket that you are probably going to grow out of next year. You can get cute winter coats and jackets for not so much money.

BOOTS!!!

Lol nope!! Snow boots!!! Snow boots can be so fashionable!! You can get some with fur sticking out on the brim and ones with buttons! There are high boots

The Cheesecake Times

November 5, 2021 Beaver Country Day School Grade 6 Volume 1, Issue 6

and cropped boots and MONKEY BOOTS!!!! YASSSSS LOL!!!!

Okay here are some Warm cozy and Cute boot brands!
UGG, SORREL,
and we can't forget..

LL.BEAN!!!!!! WOOOOO
GO LL.BEAN
YASSSSSS!!!!!!

LOLZ! Anyway you want a boot that can survive crazy snow conditions. My boots last year were bad and couldn't survive the snow we got last year which was a lot of snow. So ya.

SWEATSHIRTS!!!!

Okay, in the last few years sweatshirts have been too popular!!! Especially big ones! Now you can get just plain gray sweatshirts or ones with your fav movie characters and restaurants and school and just everything!!! For this winter i think we should go with the most color ever!!! Since last winter was so cold and gray and full of snow we should celebrate that covid is getting better and that we will make it through this hard cold winter!! And I think a way of showing pride and resilience is by wearing colorful things to lift everybody up!! Not blending into the gray winter we have. So this year, for the sake of getting past this gray cold winter, we should push through with color and happiness! You know, make it a cool new trend! So that's a cool winter idea for sweatshirts.

OMG THANKS SO MUCH FOR READING!!! IF YOU WANT TO HELP MAKE THIS A COLORFUL WINTER JOIN THE NEW COLOR TREND.
