Crystals by Addie Marsh & Brittany Franklin

Hi, it's me, Brittany. The crystal I am going to be doing is black Onyx. Black Onyx is meant for blocking negativity and Helping you with patience and determination. The zodiac signs that go with this crystal are Leo and Capricorn. The black onyx is found in Afghanistan, Madagascar, Uruguay, Peru, and India.

It's me, Addie. The crystal I will be talking about in this article is Howlite. Howlite was found in the 1860's by a chemist. Because of Howlite's texture it can be dyed to look like other crystals like turquoise. Howlite helps you clear your mind and helps with stillness.

Thank you for reading our article! Can't wait to see you next week!

Hello my fellow Jeff fans! Welcome back to another article! I just finished ANOTHER Survivor season (Fans vs favorites) and it was AMAZING!!

Survivor Sims: Since some of the other writers decided to put together a sims article, that gave me an idea. I am a big fan of the sims myself, so I decided to make a Survivor sims! I'm going to build a plot, make some people and add weekly updates!

Sadness: I have realized how much Jeff has changed since the first Survivor season. I was watching the first season because I was bored, and when people got voted out, Jeff seemed to care (Shocking right?) And he had this sadness in his voice, but now, so many people have gotten voted out he doesn't seem sad at all (expect for when its Boston Rob).

Bathrooms and Jury House: Ok so, when I watch Survivor, I can't help but wonder really stupid questions, like "Where do they go to the bathroom?" I know they are in the jungle and all, but I don't think they are peeing in a hole for a full month. And do they have a jury house where they chill when it's not tribal council?

Annoying Survivor fan: Honestly, I can be an annoying Survivor fan. We were watching this Survivor challenge, and they had to answer questions about previous Survivor seasons. And of course, yours truly, I answered every question correctly BEFORE the people on the tv. I know it annoyed my family BUT they were just jealous.

"It's Jeff Probst!!": During the last season I was watching, it was the family visit, this one Survivor superfan's brother visited. The player pointed to Jeff and said to his brother "LOOK IT'S JEFF PROBST!!" And honestly that would be me. Yes, I hadn't seen my family in almost a month or anything but IT'S JEFF PROBST.

Email me!: you can now email me at @JeffProbstFan444 (JeffFan444 was taken, not sure why)

Jeff Pic of the week:

Sims 4

by SimplySimmer, ScarySimmer, & SillySimmer

Hello my fellow Simmers! Welcome to our article all about Sims ! It's Simply Simmer! I'm going to introduce you to all of us!

Simply Simmer: The one who has every single mod, cc, and pack but never can't stick to one Sim family.

The Cheesecake Times

November 12, 2021 Beaver Country Day School Grade 6 Volume 1, Issue 7

Scary Simmer: The one who just has Sims to be evil and ruins every Sims life.

Silly Simmer: The one who never plays Sims, but has watched every Sims video possible and knows the most.

Ok so if you're like me, my Sims never work. Origin is very mean sometimes. The current glitch is where everytime I try to start Sims it glitches and breaks. RIGHT AS I GOT NEW CC'S!!

One of my favorite Sims 4 challenges is the Rags To Riches challenge. If you aren't familiar with this challenge it is where you start off on a blank lot with no money and work yourself up from there. I for one love watching videos about and playing this challenge. I (like I said) love this one so much and I hope (if you haven't already) you try it!

I have Sims just to be mean and ruin Sims, for example I once made someone divorce their spouse and then eat their kid. Then she was depressed until she died and I made someone crush her ashes. That's just one example, I once made someone have 7 kids, but not take care of them and have all of them taken away. Then she died right after her husband divorced her. You don't only have to torture Sims, I also like to build houses, but it's better when you can torture them in the awesome house you built.

*Must have mods: Let's be honest, the game isn't fun without mods, and here are my favorite mods!!

MC command center- My first ever mod, you can do EVERYTHING! Increase money, make them pregnant, make them in love, and more!

Wonderful Whims- I love this mod! Your Sims can get their periods, have a gender preference, give their baby up for adoption, and more!!

Deadly Toddlers- uh yeah the name says it all.

Slice of life- makes the game wayyyy more realistic

I could go on and on :D

*Gameplay ideas- Bored in the Sims? Here are some gameplay ideas! (costs money = $):

Occult baby challenge- have a baby with EVERY occult $

Vampires - become a vampire! $

To Many Toddlers- one adult and at least 3 toddlers, it's a MADHOUSE

100 baby challenge- have 100 babies!

Rags to riches: start out with 1 dollar and try to get to 1 million!

Enemies: Make two Sims who are mortal enemies live in the same house together!

SpongeBob: The Musical by Katie Born & Natalie Lippman

The plot of SpongeBob the Musical is about SpongeBob and his friends Patrick, Sandy, and Squidward, and many more friends that live in the bikini bottom. One day Spongebob and Sandy find out that there is going to be a volcano and it will erupt in the bikini bottom and Spongebob and his friends all plan to save the bikini bottom. And what comes with saving the bikini bottom Spongebob wants to prove to Mr. Krabs (the owner of SpongeBob's work) that SpongeBob square pants can be the new manager of the Krusty Krabs someday. The musical is a great example of believing in yourself and the power of working together.

Right now we are in the audition stage:

Monday: Dance audition day 1.

Tuesday: Singing audition day 2.

Wednesday: Acting audition day 1. (And learning the songs for callbacks)

Thursday: Acting audition day 2.

Friday: Singing audition and dance audition day 2.

The cast list comes out on Saturday!!

The show will be on February 11th and 12th!!!!

Dance auditions are like... Our dance teacher Mr. Derisier teaches us to dance to a certain part of the play bit by bit until we get the dance down, we run it with the teacher and music, then, in the end, we run it alone with the music and the teacher watches.

Acting auditions are like... The dancing and acting teachers (Ms. O'Toole and Mr. Derisier) sit in chairs in the audition room while the selected group of kids (about 2-4 kids) perform the script they have been practicing. They will give notes and write down notes on what role you would be good for. But it's not like if you read for Pearl and they like it you're going to be Pearl or the other way around if you read for SpongeBob and you want Pearl it does not mean you won't get Pearl. The auditions are the teachers seeing what your acting strengths and weaknesses are so if you read for Pearl you may or may not get Pearl. It's mainly just seeing how good you are at portraying an acting role.

Singing auditions are like... The singing teacher (Sansoni) taught all of us 2 songs, one for higher voices and one for lower. Then everyone leaves the room and Ms. O'Toole And Sansoni call 1 person in at a time. They listen to you sing and then they write down what range you are in singing (Baritone, Alto, and Soprano) Then they write down notes, and what role your singing is good for (not totally sure I don't read their minds while they write).

Thank you for reading about Spongebob the Musical. Make sure to buy tickets when they come out and good luck cast! Have a good day.

Thunder Escaping Chapter 8

by Quinn Burke

That was when he saw the flames.

He was by the river with Moon when he heard the distress call. FIRE

Only seconds later he saw the glow of the embers, felt the pulsing heat and witnessed the burning flower of death bloom again.

This all happened right before he saw the eyes, blazing eyes and the flash of golden scales. This all happened right before Moon pushed him into that deep dark tunnel, the only escape, the only way out, or the way to a different kind of death.

She ignored his pitiful pleas, for even though it was irrational, he would rather face the fire than the river, the river that took his sister, the river that almost took Mist, the river that almost took him.

The fleeing wolves pushed him forward on the narrow strip that only left inches between him and the churning black water.

It was chaos.

The wolves were all shoving each other aside to try and make it to the front, some almost fell in, the wolves were growling and snapping and forcing their way through.

He and Moon were at the front, suddenly, Moon skidded to a halt. "Everyone stop!" she barked. The other wolves stopped as suddenly as they could on the damp strip of rock. "Where is Mist?!" she demanded.

"Here!" called a voice from the back. Thunder saw a white pelt weaving through the silver ones. "I'm here," she repeated, her voice muffled by a cub she held in her mouth.

"Owl!" gasped Jet, bounding to the front of the pack and wrapping her tail protectively around the cub. This was one of the rare occasions she showed vulnerability. "Don't you ever run away from mommy again,"

They all continued on shortly after, in a much more calm and orderly fashion.

"She was the only one that made it you know," Jet murmured suddenly. "The fire took the rest of her litter."

Thunder was silent for a moment, he was taken aback by this sudden expression of emotion. "I-I'm sorry," Thunder stuttered, not particularly sure what to say.

"The rest of my pack are my children of course, but they're getting older quickly and soon it will be time for that litter to leave, it was a large one. After that it'll only be the three of us until I have another in the spring." she sounded choked up, as if the thought of all that was lost was constricting her."

"As long as we're careful we will be fine," if we aren't we could all drown.

Game'd by Lawrence Rosebert

FPS Game: A first person shooter (FPS) is a genre of action video game that is played from the point of view of the protagonist. FPS games typically map the gamer's movements and provide a view of what an actual person would see and do in the game.

Chapter 6 First Person Shooter

The ghoul crept towards me.

I swung my axe timidly. It "died" but not in the way I expected. I really just slowly disappeared after it dropped to the ground. (I also got some coins!)

I sighed with relief. But the fight wasn't over. I could still hear growling getting louder and louder. I'm so happy I got that axe. 2 more popped around the corner. They were in a row so I couldn't get past.

*SWOOSH*

Huh, talk about hitting 2 birds with one stone. But the loot the zombies gave me were different. One gave me a blood red potion with a black cross on it, (it also had "HEALTH" in big white letters) and another one gave me a... pistol? It slowly spined in place, where the undead were chopped in half. Like the medkit, when I touched it, it disappeared.

"Look in your back pocket," Sam said.

I took a peek, and there it was; resting on my back pocket. But how did he know it was in there? It wasn't even visible; I had to dig down through my pocket.

I don't have time to worry about that. I pulled out the firm firearm. There were some more zombies to take care of. I went around a corner and I got a little surprise.

*pew-pew-pew*

And down the zombies went. My panic shots saved me! It works just like a water gun. I'm glad it was silent, or else I would attract more ghouls.

I tip-toed through the abandoned hospital, aiming at every corner. (Can't have another close call.) Then I finally got out of the hospital.

"Phew," I said. "I'm finally out,"

I was so pooped.

Note to self? Don't go into abandoned hospitals.

Chocolate VS Ice Cream

Hello Vs Fans, This week we have two new contestants!
Please welcome CHOCOLATE -VS- ICE CREAM!!
Let's dive right in!

Ice Cream is COOL!

William Mortimer

Welcome back to VS! So let's get started! First off, ice cream is much better than Chocolate because you can get chocolate ice cream! Now really, are you able to get Moose Tracks Chocolate?! NO you can NOT! But if you get ICE CREAM you can get a bazillion flavors! Plus, if it's a hot day you will probably get ice cream, not chocolate! And with ice cream you get ice cream Floats, sundays, soft serve, hard serve gelato (Gelato is like italian ice cream.)

And much much more! But with chocolate you can get only like what, 3 types? Light, dark and milk! Yeah, sure they are a nice treat and all but the practicality of it is 0!
So yeah, no, not ever going to happen.

The Cheesecake Times

November 12, 2021 Beaver Country Day School Grade 6 Volume 1, Issue 7

So see what I mean?

You: I agree!

Me: I told you! As for other people on the chocolate side

You: thanks for the opinion!

Me: That's the whole idea!

You 2 : I agree too!

You 3 : I agree even more!

Everyone one i the world: I agree more than they do NO I

DO! NO ME I Agree more!! NO ME!

So ther- oh, i see it seems my line is...

GO EAT ICE CREAM!

Chocolate Rules!

Joza Wang

Seriously, chocolate is a better treat than ice cream. Chocolate doesn't melt within 2 minutes after getting it out, it might have more sugar than ice cream but it has many health benefits, and finally, chocolate has a bit of variety just like ice cream.

Okay, chocolate is still a delicious treat while being more resistant to the cold. Ice cream is going to melt entirely within 5 min of getting it out. Even though chocolate will still melt in hot temperature(makes it perfect to make hot chocolate) and it will still last long in room temperature, and a cold piece of chocolate tastes amazing!

Secondly, even though chocolate may contain more calories than vanilla, but it has more health benefits. Such as helping with skin, heart, and increasing the amount of happiness you'll feel. Also, the magnesium levels in chocolate help relieve menstrual cramps. (Don't ask me why I know this).

Finally, some say that there is only chocolate, with no variety, but there is MILK CHOCOLATE! What is basically vanilla chocolate! You can also put things like sprinkles on chocolate and it will still taste amazing!

And that is why chocolate is a better treat than ice cream.

WOW! Let's give them a round of applause!
And the votes have come in.....In a score of 9-4 ice cream wins!!!!
