Hello? Hello? It's me! REDACTED. We need help.

The timeline is destabilizing and the core is malfunctioning. We need REDACTED. We need #@(. The world depends on REDACTED. You need to send him the message. I just don't know where to put the chapter! I know 4th wall breaking is weird and creepy, but we need YOU. Yes. YOU. the reader. Find the link and send the message to REDACTED. Hopefully he will know what to do with it.

“Our world depends on you.”

Welp, now that that's out of the way. Hey! I'm REDACTED, but you already know that. I have been floating around in space trying to keep it in tip-top shape for years now! (or so I think..) Anomalies happen all the time, so I'm always on my toes! (stupid timetravelers...)

So how about you?...

Hello?

Oh.. I forgot you can't respond. That's ok! I didn't really feel like talking anyways.

Jeff! by JeffFan444

THE NEW SURVIVOR SEASON IS SO GOOD! I honestly love the season so much, the plot twists are so good wow.

JEFF LIES -

Ok so on one of the newest episodes of Survivor season 41, the person who got voted out said something like “Don't do this to me Jeff” when Jeff's about to snuff their torch, and Jeff goes “I take no fun in this.” THAT'S SUCH A LIE JEFF, WE ALL KNOW YOU ARE SMILING AS YOU SNUFF PEOPLES' TORCHES.

DO OR DIE - this part contains season 41 spoilers

On last night's Survivor episode (season 41) there was this challenge at the Immunity challenge, and the first person who got out had to compete in a challenge called do or die. Do or Die took place in tribal council. Jeff placed three boxes in front of the person who got do or die, and Jeff told them to pick one box. Out of the three boxes, one had a torch drawing, which meant they got to stay in the game and would have immunity. And in the other two boxes, there was a skull drawing, which meant they would go home without any vote. Was the person safe? I'M NOT TELLING. Watch Survivor to find out :D!

FAVORITE SEASONS -

I've decided to rank every single Survivor season from worst to best (In my opinion) But, since there are 41 seasons, I am not going to rank all. Just my top 10 favorites! I do have to do A LOT of thinking, so here is a list of seasons in the running :)

Island of the Idols, Season 41, David vs Goliath, Game Changers, Blood vs Water, Heroes vs Villains, Cagayan, Kaoh Rong, Cambodia, Millennials vs Gen X, Edge of Extinction, Micronesia, and it goes on!

I'M MAD-

I was watching Island of the Idols with my family a few weeks ago, and it showed the winner of the season I was going to watch next!! REALLY JEFFFFFFF!?

To Prove My Worth

Tristion

THE TASK ALCAZ GAVE ME WAS SIMPLE, AND ALSO NOT. I HAD TO GATHER 3 TOADS, 2 HEADS OF EUROPEAN WHITE TRUFFLE, AND THE MOST DIFFICULT OF ALL, THE TAIL OF A CLOWNFISH. IT WOULD BE WORTH IT THOUGH, AFTER HE WOULD GIVE ME A MAGICAL SWORD! ALCAZ TOLD ME SPECIFICALLY: "IF YOU GET ME THOSE ITEMS, I WILL GIVE YOU THE MOST POWERFUL SWORD I HAVE, IT IS MAGICAL TOO!"

FIRST, THE TOADS. I SPOTTED ONE RIGHT AWAY, I QUICKLY RAN AND GRABBED IT. BUT WHERE TO PUT IT? I WOULD PUT IT... WHERE WOULD I PUT IT? I PUT IN AN EMPTY BEEHIVE. NOW I WILL GET SOME TRUFFLES. I WALKED THROUGH THE FOREST, BUT NOT EVEN FINDING A REGULAR TRUFFLE. I SEARCHED FOR THE ENTIRE DAY, BUT

DID NOT FIND ANYTHING. I WENT TO BED AND HOPED TO GET BETTER LUCK TOMORROW.

Alcaz

HA! That FOOL! If he was actually SMART he may or may not realize that a European white truffle is one of the hardest things to come by! I have lived in this forest for years and I didnt even notice one!

HAHA! And the "magic" sword is a ¢1 "magic" sword I got at the You Got No Cents store™! For all I know it's made of styrofoam! I would then be able to make a potion that would make me IMMORTAL!!!! I would then be able to defeat Marvan!!!!

HA HA HA-

Cough

HA HAAAA!!!!!!

I have a little bit of a sore throat.

Hey guys were back with another article but today we decided to drop BVR sports update because we did not have enough information to keep providing new articles every week, so if you enjoyed these articles we are deeply apologetic. Anyway you might be wondering what we're going to do and the answer to that question is that we are going to review the food at Beaver, which we are both very excited about. We will review two of the meals each week and give feedback on it (we will only review the main course), but enough talk lets review the food!

BVR Eats

by Keola & Charlie

Food item #1: Pizza on Monday

The classic square Beaver pizza is a very common meal that almost all of the students enjoy every time it is served. Kaitie Born (6th) said, "The pizza was very thick with not that much cheese and lots of sauce but still was top notch like always." She ranked it 9.5/10!

Food item #2: Beaver Meatballs on Wednesday

The meatballs are delicious yet somewhat fancy for a great main or side of your meal! Also not to mention their great taste! Lawrence Rosembert (6th) said, "The meatballs were really saucy (tomato sauce) and they were the delicious meatballs you love!" He also said they were very juicy. He ranked it 7/10!

Thank you for reading the 1st Beaver Eats. Have a great rest of your week, and we'll see you next time bye!

Thunder Escaping

Chapter 10 - Trapped by Quinn

"Look what you've done now, you stupid cubs, you've gotten us trapped!" snarled a pack wolf with a gold tint to her silver fur and a scar on her side.

"Dust-" Jet began placatingly.

"Don't you DARE speak that way to me, you would be dead without us you ungrateful mutt!" Moon snapped back, drawing her lips back and baring her teeth.

Thunder stepped between them, resting his tail on her shoulders. "This isn't the time for fighting, we need to start going back," Thunder said, fighting to keep down his own panic at the thought of going all the way back to the beginning.

"We can't, i-it got blocked by rocks," stutters Ice, weaving his way to the front, "I was the last to get in the cave, I heard a crash and when I turned around it was completely blocked off. There might have been a small hole but all too tight for any fit through, it would be a waste of time and energy."

"Then what do you suggest we do, bird brain? Just sit here and wait politely for our good old buddy Death to pay us all a visit?" Moon hissed, her temper not at all cooled by Thunder's weak attempts to pacify her.

"Let's just go back, maybe one of the rocks fell loose," he suggested, yet his heart was not in it.

Moon inhaled sharply and seemed to zone out for a couple seconds.

"Moon!" Thunder said, shaking her with his paw.

"The river!" Moon gasped, her words echoing off the walls in the following silence. "How would it get in if this was a dead end, this comes from the ocean, meaning it is through this river, I might be able to convince the water spirits to make a current for us,"

"How would we know if it takes us anywhere," said Jet, more careful than hostile.

"The water spirits told me," she replied, an edge to her voice.

"What if you mess up, you could kill us all," Dust asked scathingly.

"We don't have a choice," Mist emphasized, flicking her tail in the other direction. "This is salt water, it took us two days to travel this far. I don't think we could make it another two days without drinking even if it is somehow open now."

"I'll do my best, pray to the spirits I succeed."

Nice Advice by Niceperson223

Welcome back readers, today I have two new questions for you that may or may not help you. Our first question is "I like this one boy but he was mean to me, but I think I kinda like this other boy. But I don't know which one to like!"

Honestly that's not up to me, but what I would say is picture yourself with both of them and see which one you'd be happier with, remember looks aren't everything, and also you can have more than 1 crush.

Now let's talk about our second piece of advice. "I have two different friend groups that I hang out with but they don't mix, I like them both but I'm scared if I hang out with one more then the other one will be mad".

What I would say to this is switch off sit with one at lunch and then the other in class.

Movie Review: Teen Beach

by Brittany & Addie

Ok let's get to the point. Teen Beach is the best/worst movie of all time. And you may ask, What is this movie about? It's your lucky day. This movie is one of those Disney movies from 2010-2017. Kenny Ortega (directed Descendants and Camp Rock) directed Teen Beach and had a bunch of other movies you might know.

Teen Beach is about these two teenagers who go surfing and a big wave takes them out. They end up in this TV show called Wet Side Story. And they basically mess the TV show up. There are also bad guys trying to send a storm to the town. How will Mac and Brady save the day?! So that is a summary of the movie for you, now let's get into what we think about it.

Now, did we sell the movie to you? If not, why don't you keep reading. Sure this movie looks kind of childish, but it's funny because of that. The characters do things that no one would do, but it makes the movie better. The characters also have personalities. It's a good movie, but of course it could be better. It also might not grab your attention because it's for 7 year olds. But if you're fine with a movie like that you should definitely watch it. The songs are catchy and the dances (which I know) are fun to learn if you want to learn them. If you like teen beach or want to watch something else, there is also a second. BUt this time characters from the tv show come into OUR world. That's what we think of Teen Beach the movie.

Thank you for reading our article. Please send any movie recommendations to us, we will most likely send out a form for you to fill out if you have ideas. Make sure you watch Teen Beach the Movie!

"This thing never won a oscar." -Mac from Teen Beach the Movie

Anxiety & Emetophobia

by Natalie & Katie

This week we are going to be talking about dealing with anxiety, but specifically about spreading awareness about Emetophobia. This week we will also be splitting it into two different parts, Katie's will talk about the experience. Natalie will talk about coping skills for anxiety and how emetophobia (fear of vomit) developed for us.

From National Institutes of Health (ncbi.nlm.nih.gov) A disproportionate fear of vomiting, or emetophobia, is a chronic and disabling condition which is characterized by a tendency to avoid a wide array of situations or activities that might increase the risk of vomiting. Unlike many other subtypes of specific phobia, emetophobia is fairly difficult to treat.

Natalie's coping skills:

Some of the coping skills I use when I get anxious are these: I do this thing called 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 colors, where I choose a color and I find 5 things that are that color and then I pick a different color and 4 things that are that color, etc. The next thing I do is called infinity breathing. You move your hands in an infinity sign formation and when your hand goes up you breathe in and when your hand goes down you breathe out.

I (Natalie) developed emetophobia from a very young age, I actually don't remember not having it. sometimes it would be worse than other times. March 2020 It happened and it was very traumatic. I had to go to McLean Anxiety Mastery Program for 4 weeks straight 4 days a week 2 hours a day. I am so much better now.

I (Katie) will be talking about experiencing emetophobia. Now it depends on the scenario on how I

The Cheesecake Times

December 3, 2021 Beaver Country Day School Grade 6 Volume 1, Issue 9

react. If I saw it happen I would immediately start to cry, because the first thing I feel is my stomach drop and my heart stop. Then people immediately start seeing me cry and stress out and questions and comments fly at me.

“What's wrong with you!”

“Are you okay?”

“Stop overreacting, it's just puke!”

All of those things. I hate that. Everyone I know that has emetophobia hates it. Don't assume we're weird, annoying, overreacting, or being childish just because we're freaking out. The best thing is to sympathize with us and try to distract us or ask what you can do to help us feel better. You could ask, “Hey, is there anything I can do for you?” One thing I like to do if people are being stressed that also helps me if i'm stressed is if you ask the stressed person random questions to distract them from the stress like,

“So what's your favorite color?”

“How has your day been?”

“What did you have for breakfast?”

“If you had a nickname what would you want it to be?”

Those are some ideas I like when it comes to distracting questions. After the stressed person asks them questions, now this is me, but fresh air, and fidgets, and coloring pages, and more activities or just going for a walk. Anything to calm me down, distract me, and NOT make assumptions helps. This is how I deal with someone puking, seeing it, talking about it, or just hearing certain words about it. Thanks for reading my part and have a nice day.

Thank you for reading about our experiences, advice, and if you need any advice or any advice you can email me (Katie) at bornk28@bcdschool.org. Thanks and have a nice day.

Christmas Movie Mayhem by Jaz

Hey there it's Jaz and today I'm going to be talking about the coolest holiday movies! (get it coolest because it's cold ha ha...wow that was such a dad joke)

Okay let's get into the movies.

Elf :

Elf is about a boy who was accidentally taken to the north pole when he was a baby. He was raised by Santa as an elf. Eventually he learned he wasn't a real elf and became determined to go to his hometown, New York to reunite with his biological parents. There's one issue though, his father doesn't know he exists. What will happen next? You'll have to watch it to find out! This movie is a classic and is great if you love adventure, laughs, and Christmas! Reid Bugbee says, “Amazing, funny and creative,” which I agree with!

The Grinch :

Before i start i just wanted to say that there is an animated and real movie but we'll get to that later, let's continue. The Grinch is about a green creature who hates Christmas. You might be thinking, it's a bit weird that a Christmas movie where the main character doesn't like Christmas, well you're wrong. Basically there's this thing called the Grinch who lives on top of a mountain in Whoville with his dog Max. He doesn't have very good memories of Christmas and gets pretty sad, lonely, and jealous during the holidays. Eventually one Christmas he decides he wants to “steal Christmas” by going into each house and taking all the presents, decorations, and food. I asked Ms. FitzGerald what she thought of this movie. “The Jim Carrey version creeps me right out. I won't watch it. BUT, the more recent animated version is heartwarming and full of laughs. I really did laugh out loud.”

Nailed it: Holiday :

(this is not a movie but i still wanted to include it)

Have you ever heard of the show Nailed It? If not then here's a quick overview. It's basically a cooking show with a ton of people who AREN'T professional chefs who try to recreate already made desserts, like cakes and cupcakes etc.) as best they can! It's super funny and it's cool to see the thought process of some people who don't know what they're doing. I asked my friend Cassie what they thought of this show: "I like the show because it's funny to see people fail and still have a chance to win money!" Thank you for those exquisite words. Now I just want to say before I continue that there's no such thing as "bad decorations" or "failing" even if I just said it.

The Cheesecake Times

Everything's ok and even if it doesn't look how you want it to then you just know you're still learning and you can always improve! Ok now let's continue.

Last Christmas :

By Paul Feig

Last Christmas is about a woman named Kate who has a dream of becoming an actor but is currently working in a Christmas shop. One day a man walks in and asks her out. This movie is a crazy romance story and I would tell you more but there's a lot of twists and I don't want to ruin anything. "Not my usual type of film, but I really liked it. I did. Don't believe the critics, this movie has a lot of heart and a message that I think a lot of folks will resonate with. I figured out the twist almost instantly, but it didn't take anything away from it. Like, this isn't Inception. It's a Christmas comedy film. Go in expecting that, and you won't be disappointed at all," is what a local watcher said. Thank you user "j" . I love this review.

Home alone :

By John Hughes

Last but not least we have Home Alone, the classic. This movie is about a boy named Kevin who got left behind when his whole family went on vacation. He thinks he's alone and loves it but little does he know that 2 crooks try to rob his house. He set up crazy traps and tried to keep them out of his house! Ms. Smith has a few things she would like to say. "Essential holiday viewing, amazing mix of humor, family and carol of the bells. And there are a bunch of amazing one-liners."

Credits to Brittany and Ms. FitzGerald for helping with movie ideas and to Ms. Smith, Cassie, Reid, Ms. FitzGerald and Brittany for weighing in with what they thought of the movies.

It's Been Ten Years

A murder story by Katie

Day one hour three.

The trees were caving in and we had no idea where to go... We turn to each other then turn away.

"I found a hatchet!"

"Cool! Let's cut the trees."

"I broke the hatchet..."

"Idiot!" I say as the trees start to pull away from us. I got it! If we are rude to each other the trees let us through.

"Stupid! Dummy! Idiot!" I scream in his face.

"WELL I NEVER LOVED YOU!" Benjamin screamed in my face not even knowing what I was doing...

The trees start to pull apart back to normal letting us escape. I storm away out of the street and back home. Benjamin had no idea I was yelling at him to open the trees but I did not need to know what he meant by - "I never loved you!"- I was scared something was about to happen.
